DATA CONTROLLERS COLLECTING PERSONAL DATA THROUGH COOKIES

Benteler Gebze Taşıt San. ve Tic. Ltd. Şti. places small data files, which enable certain data to be recorded and collected, on users' computers, mobile phones, tablets or other devices used, through its websites, electronic platforms and applications, or through e-mail messages, advertisements or notifications sent by the Company. These files are called cookies, and our Company collects your personal data through the cookies listed in Annex-1. These cookies are divided into two categories: first-party cookies and third-party cookies. First-party cookies are used by our Company, and our Company assumes the capacity of data controller with respect to the personal data collected through such cookies.

Our Company does not control third-party cookies. You can find information on the third-party cookies on our website in Annex-1. Our Company is not responsible for third-party cookies or the sites placing them, and we strongly recommend that you read the relevant privacy notice and cookie policy in respect of each third-party cookie. You can obtain further information on cookies at http://www.youronlinechoices.com or from online resources.

The first time you enter our website, you will be presented with our "Cookie Consent System". This system enables you to give or refuse consent to the use of Functional, Analytics and Advertising cookies, with the exception of strictly necessary cookies. Our Company places cookies on your computer, subject to your consent, by means of a system called Opt-In. In the electronic systems under our control, no cookies other than Strictly Necessary Cookies are used without your consent. In our Cookie Consent System, the options to accept and to refuse cookies are offered on an equal footing, and refusing cookies does not prevent you from using our website. As of the date on which this Policy was updated, only the strictly necessary cookies listed in Annex-1 are used on our website.

TYPES OF COOKIES

Cookies are classified according to their duration or the domain to which they belong. In terms of duration, cookies are divided into two categories: session cookies and persistent cookies. Session cookies are cookies that are deleted when the browser is closed. Persistent cookies are cookies that are stored on the user's device for a predetermined period.

Where cookies are classified according to the domain to which they belong, they are divided into two categories: first-party cookies and third-party cookies. First-party cookies are cookies controlled by the page you visit and by the owner of the page. Third-party cookies are cookies placed, through the visited page, by a domain other than the one you have visited and controlled by a person other than the site owner

PURPOSES OF USE OF COOKIES

Our Company uses cookies for the purposes set out below.

Strictly Necessary Cookies

Cookies that must be used in order for you to obtain the benefit you expect from our Company's electronic platform, for us to provide you with the services you request or for us to fulfil our legal obligations are called strictly necessary cookies. We place these cookies even without your consent. It is not possible for us to provide our services available in the electronic environment without using these cookies.

Functional Cookies

Functional cookies may be used to enable us to offer a better user experience on this site by remembering your login details or optimising video performance. Functional cookies may be used as first-party or third-party cookies.

Functional cookies are used only if you give your permission in the Cookie Consent System.

Analytics Cookies

Analytics cookies collect information on matters such as how many people visit the electronic environments, which sections people use most, or how many new visitors our Website has. These cookies help us to monitor how effective our Website is and to improve it by adapting it to our visitors.

Analytics cookies are used only if you give your permission in the Cookie Consent System.

Advertising Cookies

Advertising Cookies are cookies used, through websites, platforms and applications belonging to the Company or to third parties, for the purpose of identifying users' areas of interest and delivering to users advertisements and similar content customised accordingly. Cookies that measure the effect of advertisements and cookies that show whether a particular advertisement has been clicked or how many times an advertisement has been viewed may be given as examples of this category.

Advertising cookies are used only if you give your permission in the Cookie Consent System.

PERSONAL DATA PROCESSED THROUGH COOKIES, LEGAL BASES AND TRANSFER

Through cookies, your transaction security data such as your IP address, browser and device information, session information, date and duration of visit, as well as information relating to your use of the website, may be processed.

Your personal data processed through strictly necessary cookies are processed on the basis of the legal grounds set out in sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph 2 of Article 5 of Law No. 6698 on the Protection of Personal Data (the "Law"), namely "it is necessary to process the personal data of the parties to a contract, provided that the processing is directly related to the establishment or performance of that contract", and in sub-paragraph (f) thereof, namely "the processing of data is mandatory for the legitimate interests of the data controller, provided that it does not harm the fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject".

Your personal data processed through Functional, Analytics and Advertising cookies, other than strictly necessary cookies, are processed solely on the basis of your explicit consent pursuant to paragraph 1 of Article 5 of the Law. You may withdraw your explicit consent at any time via the Cookie Consent System.

Your personal data obtained through cookies may be transferred to service providers providing hosting and infrastructure services for our website and, upon request, to authorised public institutions and organisations in accordance with Articles 8 and 9 of the Law. Where the servers of the service providers are located abroad, the transfer is carried out in accordance with the conditions laid down in Article 9 of the Law.

REFUSING AND DELETING COOKIES

While Strictly Necessary Cookies will always be actively used on your device, we place Functional, Analytics or Advertising Cookies and other similar technologies on your device only following your consent. You may change your cookie settings at any time, including withdrawing your consent to this processing.
