Best performance for Jaguar Land Rover

- BENTELER Corby receives prestigious JLRQ Award from Jaguar Land Rover
- BENTELER supplies Jaguar Land Rover with high quality components

Corby/Paderborn, January, 2018. Jaguar Land Rover has presented BENTELER Automotive UK Ltd on January 16th at Corby with the prestigious “JLRQ Award”. This award is granted to suppliers who meet the high requirements of the automotive manufacturer. BENTELER was able to reliably please its customer in terms of quality and customer satisfaction.

Receiving the award on behalf of the Corby site, Darren Jackson, Corby Plant Manager, stated: “This JLRQ Award presents a beacon that promotes a drive and determination to maintain high levels of performance. The BENTELER makes it happen strategy fosters continuous improvement, which regularly evaluates customer care, reliability and company objectives.”

Andrew Gill, BENTELER, Customer Line Director and Key Account Executive added: "This is a significant achievement for our Corby site and is a total reflection of the dedication and passion of our employees. Together, they give their best to supply Jaguar Land Rover with high quality products."

BENTELER's plant in Corby delivers welded and painted steel assembly components like subframes to Jaguar Land Rover. In addition to England, BENTELER also supports Jaguar Land Rover in Brazil, India and China, as well as continental Europe.
